| Virginia is your base jurisdiction for motor fuel road tax licensing and reporting if you: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> own vehicles registered in Virginia that travel on Virginia roads, and in two or more jurisdictions; maintain operational control and records for those vehicles in Virginia or can make those records available in Virginia (or agree to pay travel expenses for audit of those records maintained outside of VA) and have a business address in VA. If you are based in Virginia, you will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> apply for motor fuel road tax licensing in Virginia; receive an IFTA license and IFTA decals for your vehicles which will allow you to travel in all other IFTA jurisdictions (for motor fuel road tax purposes only); and file a tax return each quarter with the Virginia DMV for the total tax or refund due for all IFTA jurisdictions. Virginia has various licensing, recordkeeping, and tax reporting requirements through the Department of Motor Vehicles at www.dmv.state.va.us (motor carrier services). | International Registration Plan (IRP): a cooperative agreement that allows a motor carrier to make one application to register vehicles that travel into two or more jurisdictions (States/Canadian provinces) instead of apply separately to each jurisdiction where the carrier operations. The IRP provides for the payment of licensing fees based on fleet miles operated (paid to the base jurisdiction and distributed to the various other jurisdictions). International Fuels Tax Agreement (IFTA): an agreement between States and Canadian provinces which allows a carrier to register and pay motor fuel road tax in the carrier's home or base state or jurisdiction. Virginia is one of the jurisdictions that participates in IFTA. IFTA Report: a report filed with the trucking company's State DMV which is specifically designed to indicate the miles traveled and gasoline purchased by each truck that travels in interstate commerce. Apportioned/ Apportionment: a reduction of the assessed value by taking the normal assessed book value of vehicles or trailers that travel in interstate commerce and multiplying it by the percentage of VA miles divided by all interstate miles traveled by that vehicle. In other words, the fees are divided or "apportioned" among jurisdictions. Contract Carrier (CT): a motor carrier that has an agreement (contract) to transport goods over interstate routes for someone else. Contract Carrier Rate (CTR): the tax rate required to apply to qualifying contract carrier trucks and trailers in a locality that has a machinery and tools (M&T) rate lower than the personal property tax rate. The contract carrier rate cannot exceed the locality's M&T rate pursuant to Virginia Code. NOTE: CT rate applies ONLY to licensed for-hire carriers. Trailers or Semi-Trailers: the large non-motorized but wheeled cargo containers or beds that are pulled behind large trucks for hauling goods in interstate commerce. Trailers are treated in the same manner as the trucks pulling them under VA rules. |

Tangible Personal Property Tax Return

Section 58.1-3518 of the Code of Virginia, as amended, requires that all personal property owned as of January 1 of any year be filed on a personal property tax return if not previously reported. All newly purchased or moved in property must be filed by the taxpayer within 60 days thereof. Returns for mobile homes and airplanes are required to be filed ANNUALLY even if the same as prior year per the VA Code. Personal Property assessments are made based on a recognized pricing guide or by a percent or percentages of the original cost. In addition, every taxpayer who owns, leases, rents, or borrows tangible personal property (non-vehicle assets such as equipment, tools & machinery) which was used or available for use in a business or profession and which was located in Frederick County on January 1 is required to report such property on the appropriate form (see list below) ANNUALLY.

Penalty

A 10% or $2.00 minimum late filing penalty will be imposed if personal property is not filed by the taxpayer within 60 days of its purchase or move in.

Appeals

Section 58.1-3983.1 of the Code of Virginia states that any person assessed with any local mobile property tax or local business tax may appeal such assessment. The Application For Review – Vehicles Only and Application for Review – Local Business Taxes Only appeal forms are available on the Commissioner of the Revenue's website at www.fcva.us/cor. Any evidence supporting the appeal must be presented to the Commissioner or staff personnel. Call 540-722-8324 for appeal procedures.

Truckers

If you travel in interstate commerce, you must file with the Commissioner's office by MARCH 1 (or first business day thereafter) your four (4) consecutive quarters of IFTA reports for apportionment.

Proration

If personal property is purchased after January 1, and the item is owned for more than 15 days in the month, the taxes are calculated as if the item was owned for a full month. If you sell or dispose of a motor vehicle, trailer, boat, or mobile home, please go online to Registration to Add/Remove Vehicle or complete a Request for Refund/Prorated Assessment Form and return it to the Commissioner of the Revenue so that you may receive a credit or refund of taxes for that portion of the remaining year. On DMV registered items, the jurisdictional disposal or residency address must be changed or the item will be taxed here when we match records with DMV. No refund of less than $5.00 by the Treasurer shall be issued unless specifically requested by the taxpayer. Forms and online programs are available at www.fcva.us/cor.

PPTRA

The Personal Property Tax Relief Act of 1998 provides tax relief for passenger cars, motorcycles, and pickup or panel trucks having a registered gross weight of less than 7,501 lbs. or having a gross weight exceeding 7,500 lbs. but not in excess of 10,000 lbs. for personal use (not business) and reclassified by DMV. To qualify, a vehicle must: (a) be owned by an individual or leased by an individual under a contract requiring the individual to pay the personal property tax; AND (b) be used 50% or less for business purposes. Motor homes, trailers, and farm use vehicles do not qualify for tax relief per state regulations.

Billing

Please call the Treasurer at 540-665-5607 for questions on payments, balances, penalties, or past due notices.

Business Use

Passenger type vehicles with 50% or more business use must be reported separately to the Commissioner of the Revenue.

Residents of Middletown and Stephens City

Middletown & Stephens City residents are no longer required to file a Personal Property Return with Frederick County Commissioner of the Revenue if items have not changed from the previous year. Decals are purchased from the respective town offices. If you have property not previously reported, see your Town's 30-day rules. Please check with your Town officials if you have questions.
